

Joannes Juda Groen
Stichting voor Interdisciplinair
Gedragwetenschappelijk Onderzoek

Symposium and award ceremony for the Joannes Juda Groen Prijzen 2020

Moderator: Jim Jansen, New Scientist

Symposium 24 September 2020

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 13.00-13.30 | Arrival, coffee and tea are served |
| 13.30-13.40 | Welcome by Prof. dr. Liesbeth Sterck, chair JJ Groen Stichting |
| 13.40-14.00 | Presentation Dr. Liz Washbrook , Quantitative Methods, Bristol University, UK. 'Childhood achievement inequalities and the role of national context' |
| 14.00-14.20 | Presentation Dr. Caspar van Lissa , Methodology & Statistics, Utrecht University, The Netherlands. 'Will the kids be alright? Using machine learning to predict emotional problems in teenagers' |
| 14.20-14.25 | Laudatio for Prof. dr Renske Keizer by Dr. Katharina Riebel, chair of the jury |
| 14.25-14.45 | Presentation Prof. dr. Renske Keizer , Family Sociology, Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands, laureate: 'The role of the father in child development and the intergenerational transmission of inequality: Linking sociological stratification questions to developmental psychology research' |
| 14.45-15.15 | Coffee and tea break |
| 15.15-15.35 | Presentation Prof. dr. Carmine Pariante , Psychological Medicine, King's College, London, UK. 'Inflammation in psychiatric disorders: what does it all mean?' |
| 15.35-15.55 | Presentation Prof. dr. Eco de Geus , Biological Psychology, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, The Netherlands. 'What wearables will (not) tell us about stress in daily life' |
| 15.55-16.00 | Laudatio for Prof. dr. Brenda Penninx by Dr. Katharina Riebel, chair of the jury |
| 16.00-16.20 | Presentation Prof. dr. Brenda Penninx , Psychiatric Epidemiology, Amsterdam UMC, The Netherlands, laureate: 'Our body as weapon in the war against depression' |
| 16.20-16.30 | Closing remarks |

16.30-17.30

Drinks